DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The 102(b) and 103 rejections are withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. A sheet is flat. Having an edge as defined in the specification would mean it would have to be a three-dimensional article, not a sheet. The Examiner strongly suggests calling the "edge portion" a "side".

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 1-2-03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
7. Applicant appears to give a new definition to a well-known defined term. The term "edge" is known to refer to the periphery of a sheet. While applicant may be his or her own lexicographer, a term in a claim may not be given a meaning repugnant to the usual meaning of that term. See In re Hill, 161 F.2d 367, 73 USPQ 482 (CCPA 1947). The term "edge" in the claims is used by the claims to mean "not on the facial portion" while the accepted meaning is "on the outer peripheries of a facial portion of an article (e.g. sheet)".

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1774

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
